

NYS-AIMH

Professional Development Bulletin

Summer 2022 Edition

For everyone who works with and on behalf of young children and their families

~ Coming up Soon! ~

Breakfast for Babies July 22, 2022

9:00 am - 12 Noon

"Infants and Children with Special Needs

– helping them and their families get the support they need"

Presented jointly on Zoom by:

New York Zero-to-Three Network
a statewide organization

NEW YORK STATE ASSOCIATION FOR INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

We will have a panel discussion among three successful advocates for families with infants or children with special needs: Sarah Milko, ED of AutismUp, Kelly Conlon, Family Navigator at the Golisano Autism Center in Rochester; and Emily Mondsheim, ED of GiGi's Playhouse in Buffalo, and state/nationwide advocate for individuals with Down Syndrome and their families.

FREE for members of NYZTT and NYS-AIMH, $15 for non-members.

Go to www.nysaimh.org/events to register

presents:

Claudia Gold, MD

PEDIATRICIAN, AUTHOR, IECMH CLINICIAN,
DIRECTOR OF THE HELLO IT'S ME PROJECT

Getting to Know You: Parents, Infants, and the People who Support Them

Building relationships - even in times of chaos and discord

in two parts, remotely on Zoom

Sept. 8 & 15, 2022 9 am - Noon

This 2-part workshop with renowned Pediatrician, IMH practitioner, teacher, and author, Claudia Gold, MD, is for all who work with or on behalf of babies and young children! Whether you provide day care or healthcare; home visiting or early intervention; psychotherapy or child welfare, Dr. Gold will offer information and insights from her research and clinical practice that will strengthen and inspire your work!

5.5 hours NYSED CEUs pending for LMSW/LCSW, LMHC, LMFT, LCAT, and PSY. Full attendance at both sessions is required; no partial credit will be awarded for partial attendance.

Go to www.nysaimh.org/events to register

More Special Events in 2022!

October 21, 2022 Mickey Sperlich and special guests - "Prenatal IMH: Supporting Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health - before the baby is even born!" to cap off "Celebrate Babies Week" details coming soon.

November 18, 2022 Listening Session: Pride and Parenting from 10 am - 4:00 pm focusing on LGBTQIA2 Parenting. In the morning, a pediatrician, a psychologist, an advocate, and a social worker will use their personal and professional experience and expertise to share key concepts, language, best practices, and policy issues. In the afternoon, a panel of parents will generously share their own stories. registration available soon.

Recurring Events in 2022!

IECMH Basics Courses are Free again in 2022 with three remaining dates available.

The following dates have space available at this time – go to www.nysaimh.org/events to register

Sept. 22/23 - Nov. 3/4 - Dec. 1/2

*Registration in Zoom is also required, with video and audio participation during the course

IECMH Basics – Track 3 Monthly, facilitated, small group Reflective Supervision and Consultation (RSC) sessions for a whole year! CLICK HERE for more information and to register to receive an application!

NYS-AIMH Endorsement®

for Culturally Sensitive, Relationship-Focused Practice
Promoting Infant Mental Health

Monthly Endorsement® office hours- offered on the second Friday of every month, this time if for those pursuing or interested in pursuing Endorsement®. see www.nysaimh.org/events to register. For the July office hours, click here.

Endorsement® Meet and Greet for Endorsed® Professionals - offered quarterly, these evening meetings allow colleagues who are endorsed to share time together. see www.nysaimh.org/events for a listing of these dates.

Special Events—Mark your calendars for these 2022 Events

December 5, 2022 NYS-AIMH Reflective Supervision and Consultation Symposium. 9am-4:30pm Do you want to help people pause and think about the work they are doing? Are reflection and self-awareness important? More details to be announced.

December 6, 2022 NYS-AIMH RSC Advanced Practice Day, 9am-4:30pm