

NYS-AIMH Professional Development Bulletin

Winter 2023 Edition

For everyone who works with and on behalf of young children and their families

Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health (IECMH) Basics!

NYS-AIMH's flagship offering

We have seven IECMH Basics courses on the calendar in 2023 - limited space still available. This course is FREE, thanks to the generosity of The New York State Council on Children and Families, through a Preschool Development Birth Through Five Renewal (NYSB5-R) grant, which originates with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Administration of Children and Families. Listed below are the dates with seats available as of Feb. 15, 2023 with registration links.

June 22/23 2023 <https://tnysafimh.wildapricot.org/event-4935373>

Sept 21/22 2023 <https://tnysafimh.wildapricot.org/event-4935384>

Oct. 23/24 2023 <https://tnysafimh.wildapricot.org/event-4935409>

Special Events – Mark your calendars for 2023 Events held remotely on Zoom.

March 24 NYS-AIMH's Annual Membership Meeting 9 am – Noon All are welcome to join us for the morning to celebrate NYS-AIMH with rich small group conversations. Watch for more information, coming soon! View more details and register (free) CLICK HERE

April 28 Managing our Implicit Bias as We Navigate Professional Boundaries in Infant and Early Childhood Mental Health Work with Natalie Brooks and Wendy Bender. Join us for a reflective discussion on staying curious, challenging our knowledge and stretching beyond our comfort zones. CEUs available. 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM View more details and register -CLICK HERE.

June 2023 2nd Annual NY-AIMH IECMH Conference. Spend the day with your colleagues getting recharged, informed, and inspired. Details soon!

November 3 Reframing the Narrative: Racial Disparities in Mental Health and Pathways for Wellness and Healing with Amittia Parker LMSW, MPA, PhD. This workshop will describe and question the continuum of mental health, mental health screening and referral practices, and mental health disparities that disproportionately impact historically targeted communities. CEUs available.

Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 NYS-AIMH Reflective Supervision Symposium and RS Advanced Practice Day. Day 1 offers an introduction and overview of the basics of Reflective Supervision. Day 2 offers an opportunity for self-reflection, small group conversation and examination of the supervisory relationship. CEUs available. Registration in Sept.

Click or scan the QR code to view our details on our website: www.nysaimh.org/events

